

IRVA Code of Ethics for Board Members

Purpose

To establish a set of principles and practices of the International Remote Viewing Association (IRVA) Board of Directors that will set parameters and provide guidance and direction for board conduct and decision-making.

Code

Members of the Board of Directors of IRVA are committed to observing and promoting the highest standards of ethical conduct in the performance of their responsibilities on the board of IRVA. Board members pledge to accept this code as a minimum guideline for ethical conduct and shall:

Accountability

1. Faithfully abide by the Articles of Incorporation, by-laws and policies of IRVA.
2. Exercise reasonable care, good faith and due diligence in organizational affairs.
3. Fully disclose, at the earliest opportunity, information that may result in a perceived or actual conflict of interest.
4. Fully disclose, at the earliest opportunity, information of fact that would have significance in board decision-making.
5. Remain accountable for prudent fiscal management to association members, the board, and nonprofit sector, and where applicable, to government and funding bodies.

Professional Excellence

6. Maintain a professional level of courtesy, respect, and objectivity in all IRVA activities.
7. Strive to uphold those practices and assist other IRVA members of the board in upholding the highest standards of conduct

Personal Gain

8. Exercise the powers invested for the good of all members of the organization rather than for his or her personal benefit, or that of other nonprofits they may represent.
9. Ensure the right of all association members to appropriate and effective services without discrimination on the basis of geography, political, religious, or socio-economical characteristics of the state or region represented.
10. Ensure the right of all association members to appropriate and effective services without discrimination on the basis of the organization's volunteer or staff make-up in respect to gender, sexual orientation, national origin, race, religion, age, political affiliation or disability, in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Confidential Information

11. Respect the confidentiality of sensitive information known due to board service.

Collaboration and Cooperation

12. Respect the diversity of opinions as expressed or acted upon by the IRVA board, committees and membership, and formally register dissent as appropriate.
13. Promote collaboration, cooperation, and partnership among association members.
